

SAVANNAH COURIER.

C. L. HEFNER, Proprietor.

NON-POLITICAL.
Devoted to the Interests of the Courier and its Patrons.

THURSDAY, AUG. 1, 1889.

Telephonic.

The Tennessee River Telephone Company held its annual meeting in Savannah Wednesday and elected T. S. Hughes, of Clifton, President; W. H. Carrington, Vice-President; J. K. Barlow, Secretary, Treasurer and General Superintendent. A dividend of twenty per cent. was declared.

Reports of Boards of Health in the Southern cities show that the death-rate per thousand among negroes is far higher than among whites. In some cases this excess of mortality is 120 per cent, while the average is fully 50 per cent. This is one of the facts which show the falsity of the reasoning of the philosophers who contend that the African is going to outnumber the Caucasian in the Southern States three-quarters of a century or so hence.—Globe-Democrats.

Charlie Joslin accidentally shot Robbie Caruff, his little playmate and neighbor, in the leg Saturday. Charlie Joslin slipped a 22-calibre pistol, belonging to his father, out to have some fun. The fun ended rather seriously. Bob is getting along very nicely.—Clarks-ville Democrat.

Uncle Jim Harvey, age between 75 and 90 years, living on Rock House Creek, in the Ninth District, committed suicide on Thursday last, by hanging himself. He leaves a wife but no family. Cause unknown.—Linden Herald.

The 100th anniversary of the storming of the Bastille was celebrated at Chicago last Sunday by Socialists and Anarchists. Incendiary speeches were made by Mrs. Lucy E. Parsons and Paul Grot-teau.

Chancery Sale of Land.

Pursuant to a decree of the Chancery Court at Savannah at the May term, and entered of record at page 235 of Minute Book II, in the case of W. T. Dickey vs. R. M. Lucy et al., notice is hereby given that I will expose to public sale at the court house door in Savannah on Monday, September 2, 1889, the following described property, to wit: A tract of land in the 12th civil district of Har-din County, Tenn., and bounded as follows: Beginning on a black oak with oak post pointers; west 40 poles to a hickory, hickory pointers; thence south 42 poles; thence east 120 poles to a stake on the west bank of Mud Creek; thence down said creek with its meanders 260 poles to a hickory, hickory and elm pointers on the east bank of said creek; thence west 48 poles to a stake with elm, hickory and maple pointers; thence north 6 poles to a stake; thence west 94 poles to a stake with red oak and maple pointers; thence south 147 poles to the beginning, in range 6 and section 6. In obedience to the order of said Court I will sell separately thirty acres off of the east end of said tract, then the balance as a separate tract.

Terms of Sale: On a six months credit, note with good personal security and lien retained on the land. Sale from the right of redemption. This July 30, 1889.

The capital of Montana is named for the big South American snake—Anaconda.

The first bale of the new cotton crop of Texas and also of Georgia was marketed last week.

Roger Evans, of Washington, says he has polished the boots of every president since the time of Jackson.

The law in New Hampshire requiring physicians and dentists to be licensed has been declared unconstitutional.

See the card of the Nashville Evening Herald. It is a spicy and newsy sheet and issues a Sunday edition.

The editor of the Clarksville Democrat is the proud owner of a bull pup and a $5,000 damage suit on his hands.

The farmers' Alliance and State Wheel met in joint convention at Nashville last week and merged the two orders into one.

An explosion occurred at South Pittsburg in the Perry Stove Works, last Saturday, in which several men were killed.

If Gov. Taylor calls an extra session of the Legislature the Memphis Avalanche suggests the importance of the city limits of Memphis being extended.

More than 4 inches of water fell in Chicago Sunday evening in the space of three hours. The rain was accompanied by wind and much property was damaged.

The saloon-keepers of Cincinnati tried to defy the Sunday law and keep their saloons open last Sunday, but a watchful police promptly arrested all violators.

A royal wedding took place at Buckingham Palace 61 miles from London, England, last Saturday, between the Earl of Fife and Princess Louise, daughter of the Prince of Wales.

W. T. Davis, Secretary of the State Wheel, defaulted that organization to the amount of $2,103. Mr. Davis says the money was not squandered in gambling but was consumed in the support of his family.

Last week's issue of the Franklin County News contained an interesting letter from the editor, Jo A. Parker, who was attending the Convention of the Western Association of Writers at Warsaw 109 miles from Chicago.

Icebergs are encountered farther south in the Atlantic this summer than ever before. This fact offers accounts for the extra cool summer or the extra cool summer accounts for the icebergs getting so far south. Which?

A passenger train was wrecked thirty miles north of Memphis on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad last Saturday morning; caused by an open switch. J. J. Somerville, the mail agent, was killed and several others were more or less hurt.

The widow of John J. Little, who lost his life in the Hulbert House at Johnstown by the flood, has sued the South Fork Fishing Club for $50,000 damages for the death of her husband. Should she gain this suit the Club will be broken up by similar ones.

A movement in on foot to remove some 400 Apaches, including Geronimo's band, from Mt. Vernon Barracks in Alabama to the Cherokee Reservation on Smoky Mountains on the line between Tennessee and North Carolina. The move will be to better the health and general condition of the Indians.

The jury in the Howard case at Jackson gave Howard one cent damage. Under the laws of this State when the damages assessed is less than five dollars the cost is assessed to the plaintiff. This puts the cost on Howard and his attorneys have moved for a new trial on the ground that some of the jurors believed that to give him one cent would tax the defense with the cost. Today has been set for the hearing of the motion for a new trial.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice but was cured by timely use of this medicine; am satisfied it saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying, he positively believes he would have died had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50 cts. and $1. at Barlow's drugstore.

Magazine of American History.

The Magazine of American History for August is a model of elegance, and as usual the number is well filled with admirably written and valuable papers. Dr. Everett's "Earliest American People" touches upon a theme dear to every antiquarian reader, and it is so presented as to interest alike the old and the young, the wise and the unlearned. "England's Struggle with the American Colonies," by Dr. William M. Taylor, a scholarly article of a different character, is one of the prominent features of the number. The eminent author traces the events in England, the needless misunderstandings, and the crude mistakes which led to the war of the Revolution, and bestowed upon the colonies their independence, and he does it with such skill, intelligence and power, that fresh life is infused into the narrative, and one of the best condensed accounts of this part of our history extant is the result. Hon. J. O. Dickman concludes his series of papers of "The Last Twelve Days of Major Andre" in this number. J. P. Dunn, Jr., contributes "The Founding of Post Vincennes," and Mr. William S. Pelletreau writes of "The Philadelphia Patent in the Highlands," furnishing portraits of Col. and Mrs. Roger Morris, and an interesting map. Mrs. Lamb's opening article is a vigorous pen-picture of the "Career of a Benign Enterprise,"—now one hundred and four years old—"The General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen," and this delightful paper is profusely illustrated. A portion of the brilliant address of President Merrill E. Gates of Rutgers College, to the class of 1889, appears in these pages, entitled "Life and its Activities—the bearing of the Past on the Present and Future;" and there is a beautiful "Tribute to Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes," from the Editor. The frontispiece of the number is an excellent portrait of Alexander Hamilton. "The Wit and Wisdom of Keokuk, Chief of the Sacs and Foxes," is one of the short articles; and an unpublished Washington letter is given to the reader in Original Documents. All the minor departments—Notes, Queries, Replies, Historic and Social Jottings, and Book Notices—are crowded with important facts and choice reading. Price, $5.00 a year. Published at 743 Broadway, New York City.

There is nothing uncertain about the effects of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The fact is, it is the only preparation in the market that can always be depended upon, and that is pleasant and safe to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Barlow's.

Woman's Work.

There is not a purer, better, or more helpful family magazine published than "Woman's Work." It seeks to elevate the character of periodical literature, and admits nothing of a harmful nature in its reading or advertising columns. The entire field of home interests is ably covered—its departments embracing Art, Literature, Poetry, Fancy work, Floriculture, Mothers' Corner, Home Physician, Boys and Girls, Bright Babies, Cooking, Vegetable Garden, Poultry, and miscellaneous matter of the highest order. None of the prevailing trash of the present day. Every member of the family—from the little ones to the white-crowned grand-parents—will read it eagerly and derive benefit from its pages. Published by T. L. Mitchell, Athens, Ga., at 50c. a year, and only 30c. when clubbed with the COURIER.

The Nashville Banner.

We want an agent in every community, and besides the usual commission allowed, we are offering a special list of cash prizes to parties who receive and forward subscriptions to the Weekly Banner. Send for circulars.

The Weekly Banner is the best weekly published in Tennessee. It contains more news and a greater variety of reading matter, and is worth the subscription price of $1.00 to anyone who wishes to keep informed on the current events and discussions of the times. It gives the news impartially, and discusses public questions freely and frankly. Its various departments are entertaining and instructive, and it is a paper which should be in every home circle.
